

It happened in the beginning of the universe...

...but it also faced the balance

The dark and the light...

The creation and destruction.

The love and the hate...

The lie and the truth...

...the first thing it would ever face was the formation...

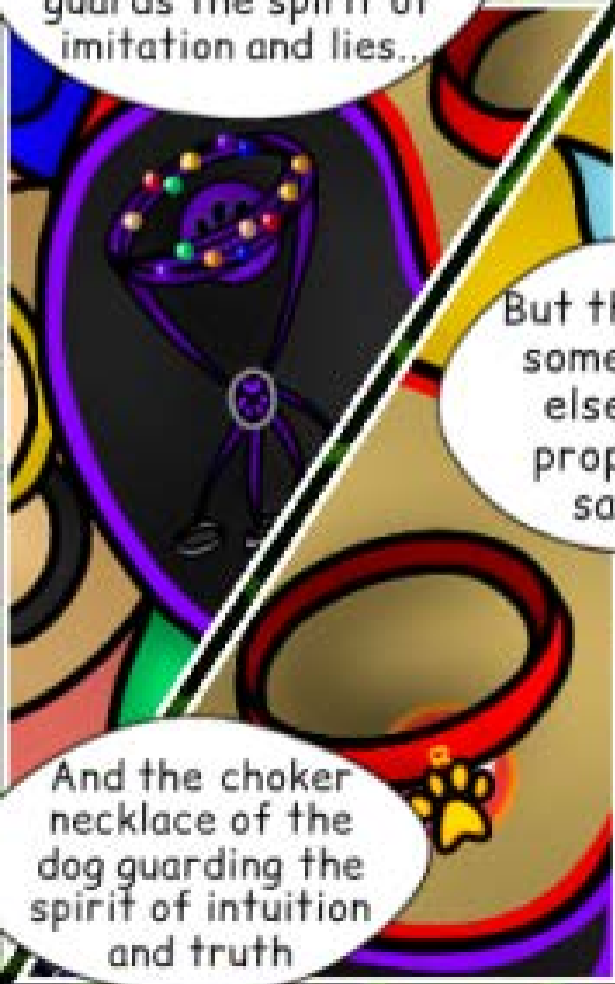

That's when the miracle stones were created

Through all the history they were in humanity's hands

There are two balance miracle stones in Europe that are stronger than the others...

The panjas bracelet of the black cat which guards the spirit of imitation and lies..

And the choker necklace of the dog guarding the spirit of intuition and truth

That someday two balanced stones shall be connected by the infinite power

But there is something else the prophecy says...

I need that to fulfill that prophecy Buzz. I will do it at all the cost...

I swear to my family by that..

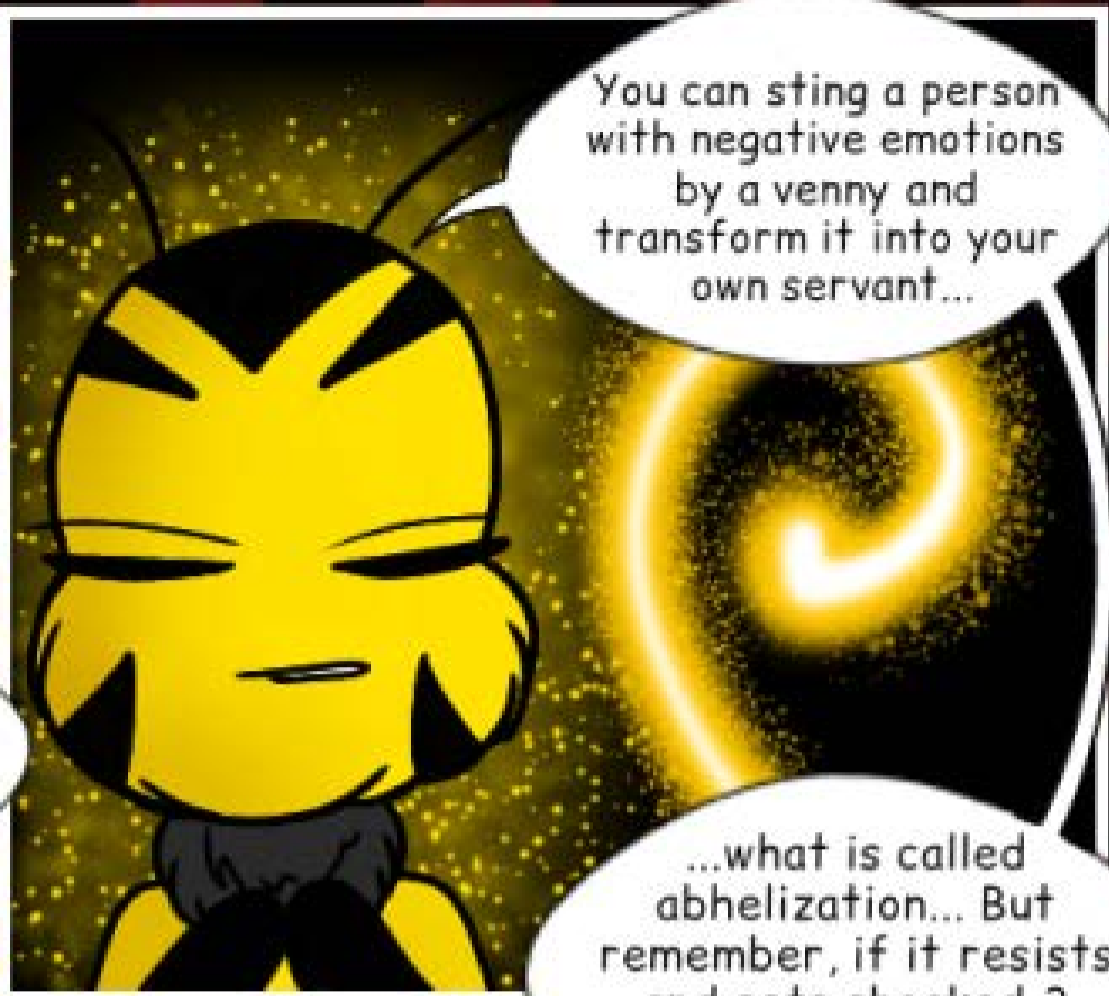

My miracle stone...

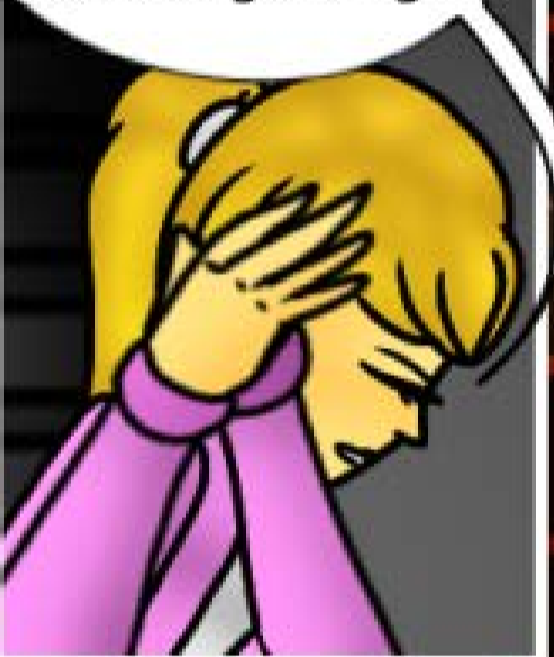

Remind me what will I be capable of

You can sting a person with negative emotions by a venny and transform it into your own servant...

...what is called abhelization... But remember, if it resists and gets shocked 3 times it will turn into a statue

If you need the heroes there must be a danger, right?

But ma'am! I am a chaos kwami! You can't risk with your sanity!

SILENCE!

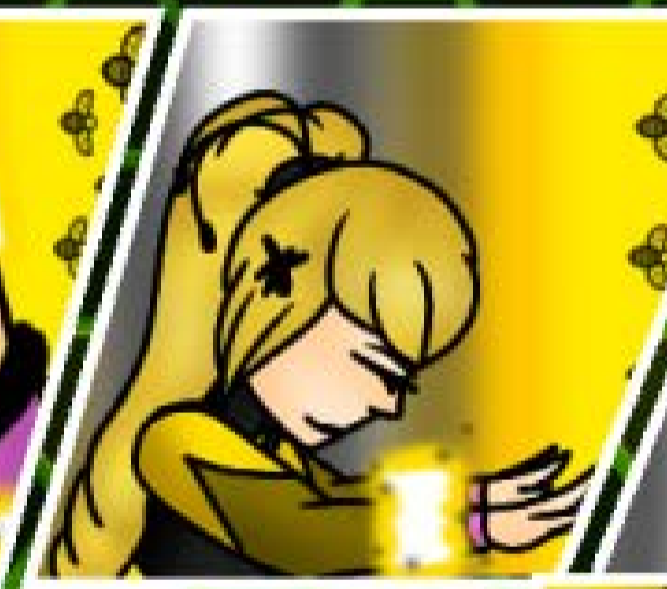

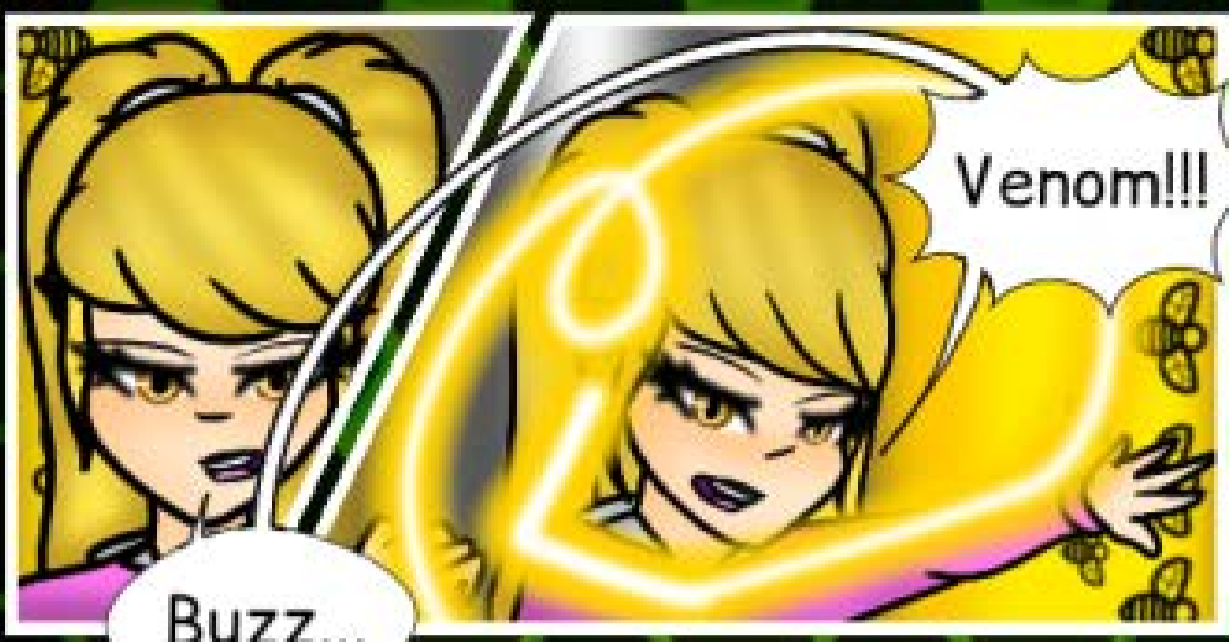

What if I will create my own supervillains?

You think I really have a big choice?! I will do everything for my goal! OBEY!

I am sorry... Go on ma'am...

Well then...

From this day on...

I shall be known as Sting Bee

HAHAHHAH
AHAHHA

Master! I felt one of the stones getting activated but at the same time I felt some dark power from it...

I need to transform

Sass, let's hi-

Is it what I think it is? Are you really sure master?

Christina please be careful! You need rest!

Don't worry I am fine...

But you are right...

the time has come...

I believe I am...

Oh wow Mikelle. You are going late, great job

The pie and the cookies better be ready

Alina Mikelle

A strong, feeling girl, caring, overprotective

I've been keeping eye on her for long, I believe she is the one...

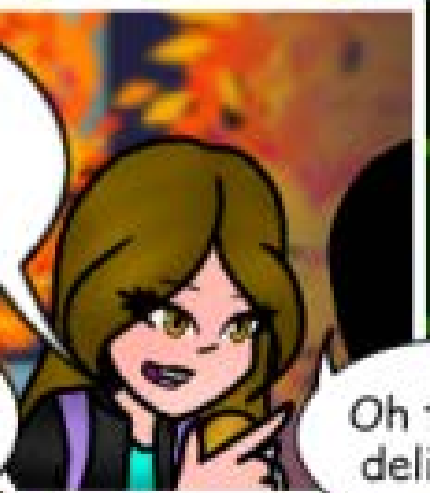

Oh gosh, what a disaster, pardon me!

I have to be more attentive apparently

Don't worry, it's not a big deal, I hope you are okay

I can't watch people get in trouble just by standing aside

Here, take a cookie made by my recipe

Oh this is delicious

Be careful!

Raven Parker...

Finally we met again,
it's time to fulfill the fate..

An overprotective, unbreakable boy who changed so much after all these years...

Auntie Christina!
Are you okay?
What are you doing here?

Don't worry, I am okay Raven.
I was just

Oh well, you need to be more careful, let me help you

Good boy...

School corridors

Come on Mark you can do this, maybe I can do at least this

Pft HAHA! You? And these lame flowers are for me? You really are stupid! Hehehe

Um..Hi Camilla! I just wanted to tell you are the prettiest girl and this is for you!

Later in restroom

God... Maybe I really am useless...

Why did I even try?...

Poor Mark...So unlucky...But I can fix it!

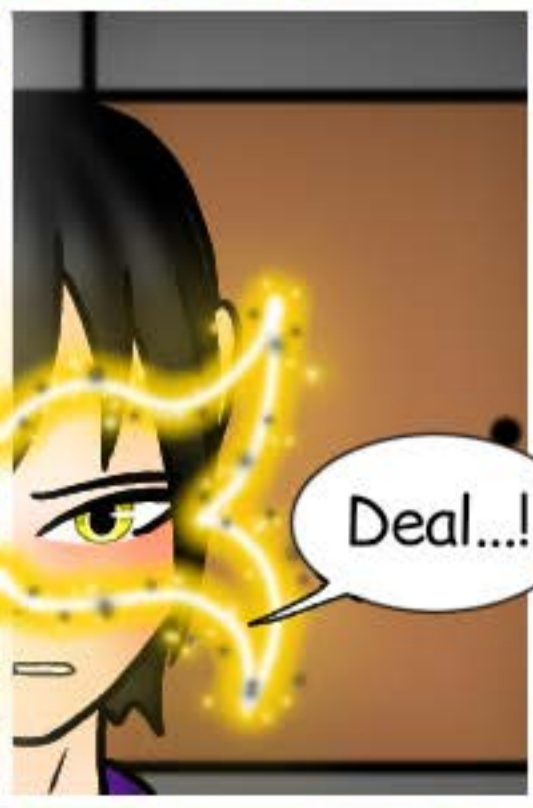

Fly my venny and abhelize him!

Cupid!

Your love hurt you badly but let me heal you!

I give you the power of negative control! But in return bring me the miracle stones of the cat and the dog, deal?

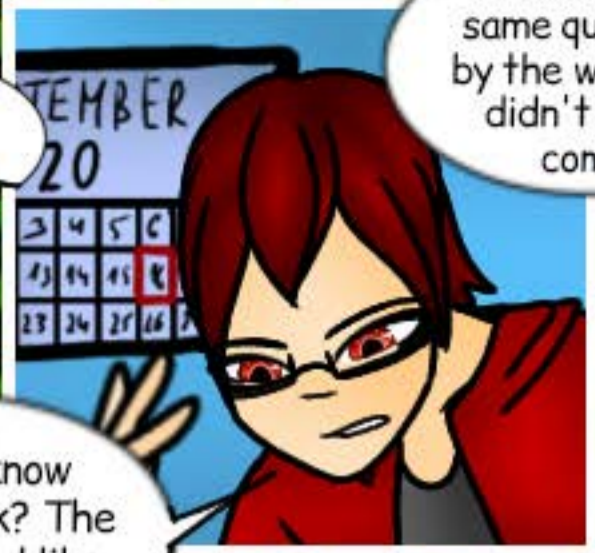

Deal...!

Classroom

psst

To be honest, same question, by the way, why didn't Emily come?

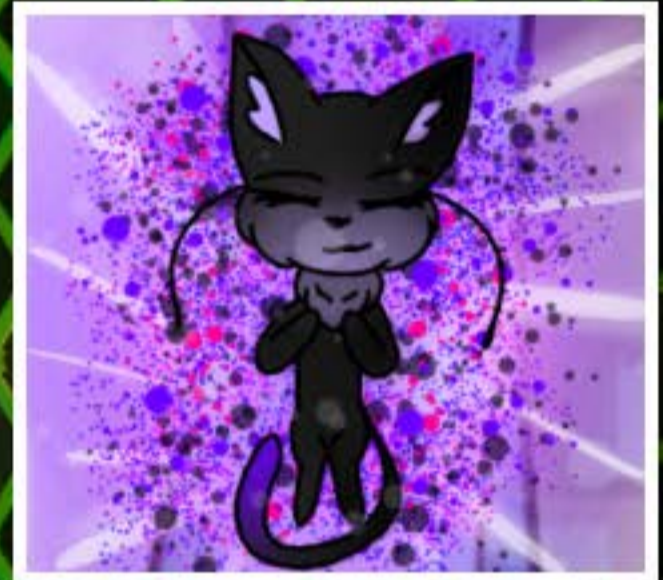

Don't you know where is Mark? The lesson started like 10 minutes ago

She didn't feel really good so she left home

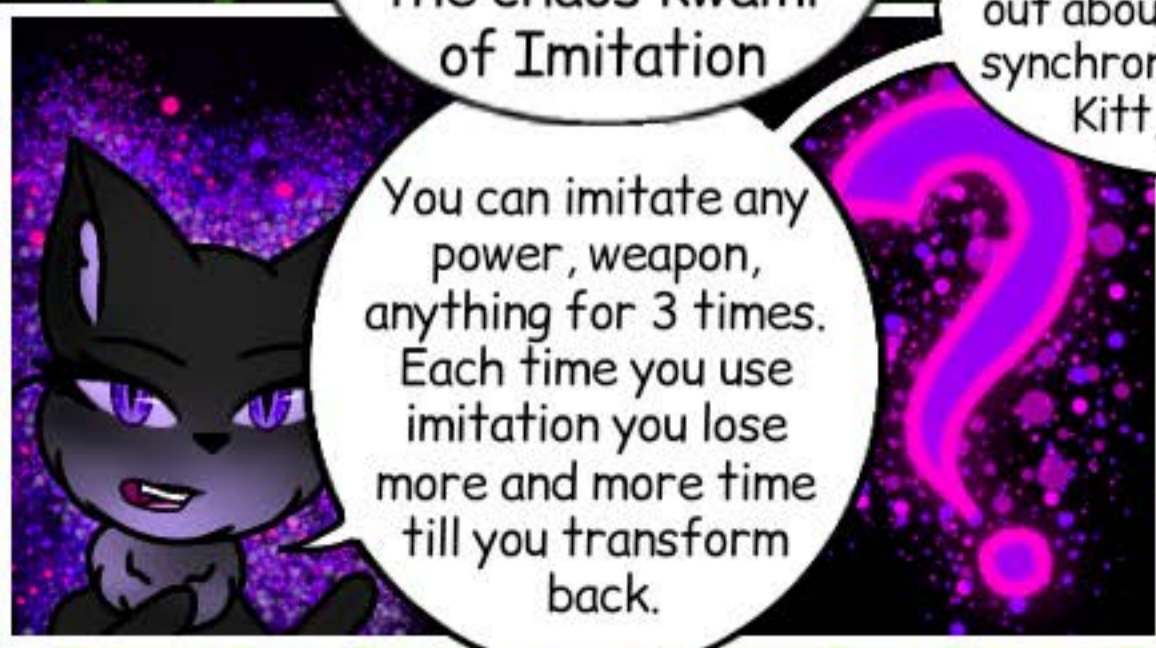

Kids I think you should all evacuate and go home, till we find out what happened

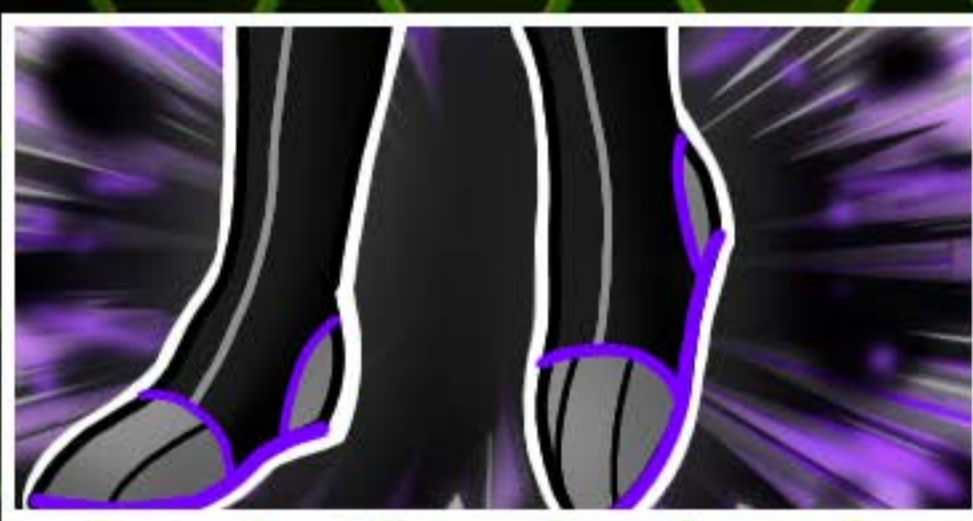

What is my power?!

You can imitate any power, weapon, anything for 3 times. Each time you use imitation you lose more and more time till you transform back.

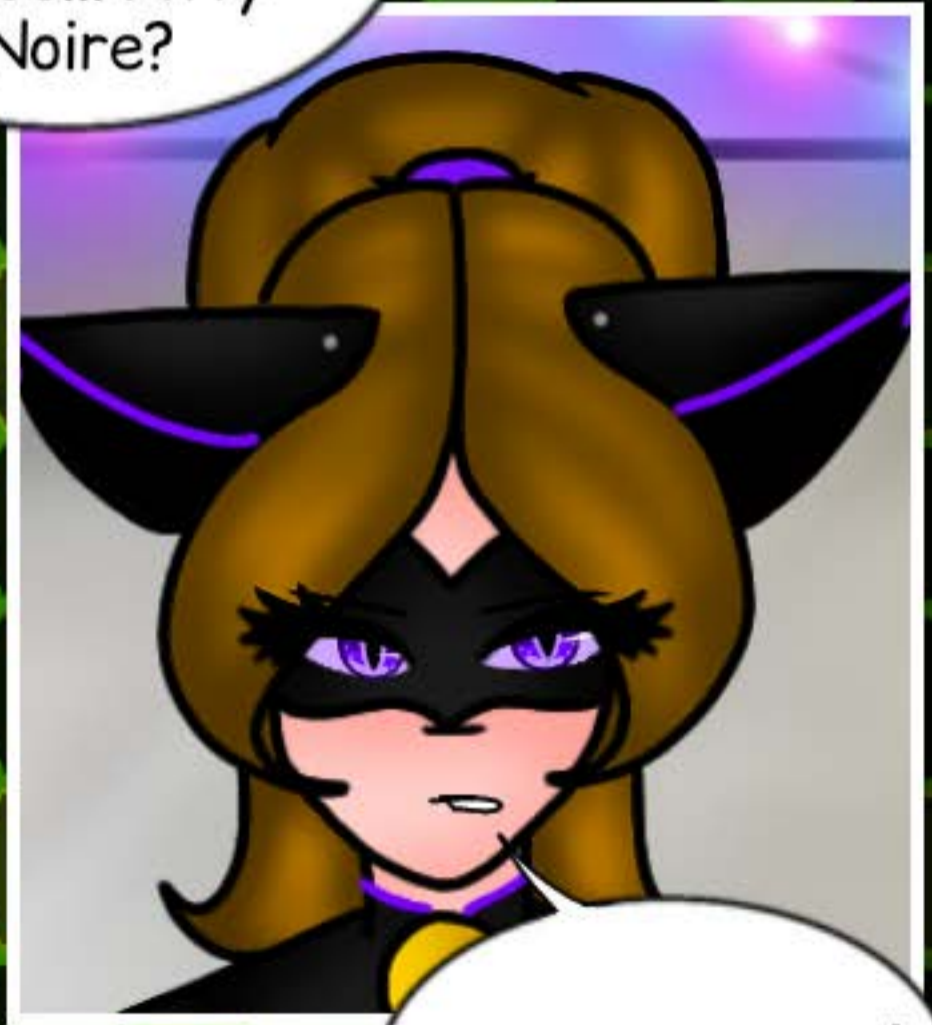

So cool!

I've gotta think of the name though
Maybe... Kitty
Noire?

Nevermind.

Raven's room

Oh god.. I hope everyone will be okay, this must be a dream!

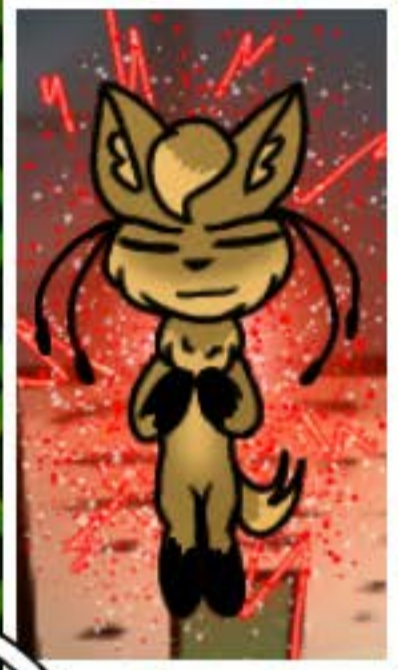

What's this thing doing here?

Wow, your intuition is good, my name is Barkk, the zigzag kwami of Intuition

So you are real!?

Totally a dream, so cool!

Ooo, hey little one, are you a jinnie? A spirit? A kwami?

Excuse me could you lease shut up for a moment?

Sorry, I just can't believe it and.. alright I will shut up now, what's my power?

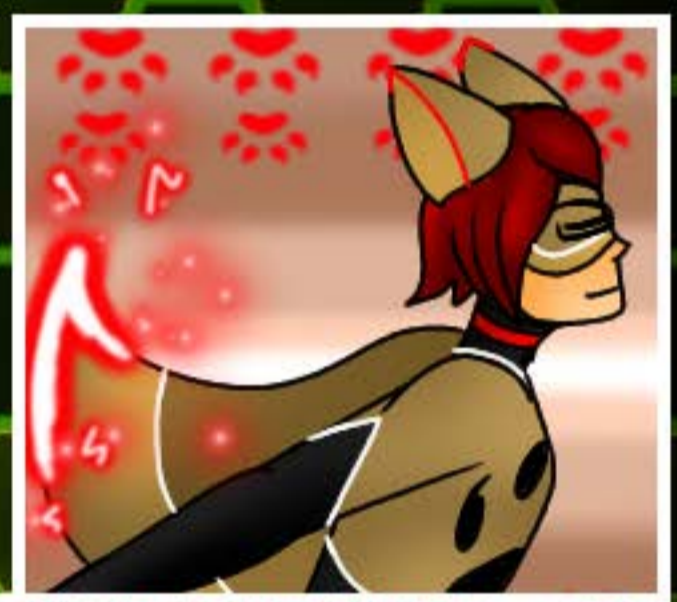

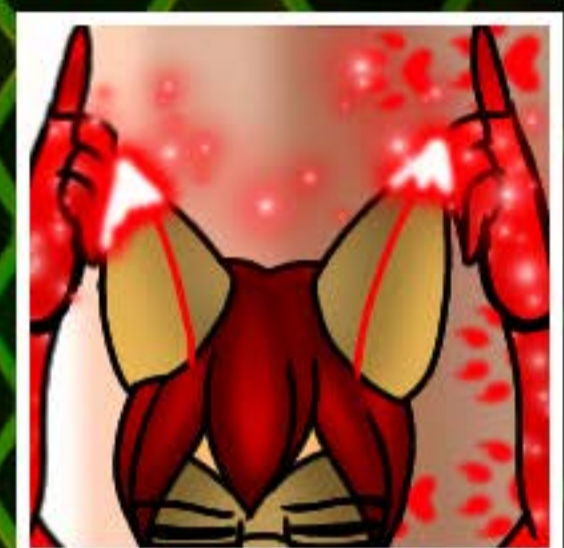

Your power is to feel the truth but your powers aren't full yet, if you use the power you will have 15 minutes till transforming back

But you need to transform first anyway so just say "Barkk, catch the toy" to transform and "Barkk, bring the toy" to detransform! Are you ready kid?

Got it!

Alright coming through! It's time for.. Dog..

Dogboy to get to action!

Okay, I guess I should say this...

Intuition!!!

Oh hello there Kitty Noire, troubling with this transport too are you?

That abhelized object is the belt, we need to get it I guess, I know where we should go, follow me!

We will get the hang of it eventually, but- how do you know my name? I guess you are my partner?

Oh! Yeah, my name is Dogboy! Please to meet you! This is so unexpected but exciting at the same time!

You could say that again..

Oh, so I see you've finally come!

Let her go!

If you want to save her give me your miracle stones!

NEVER!

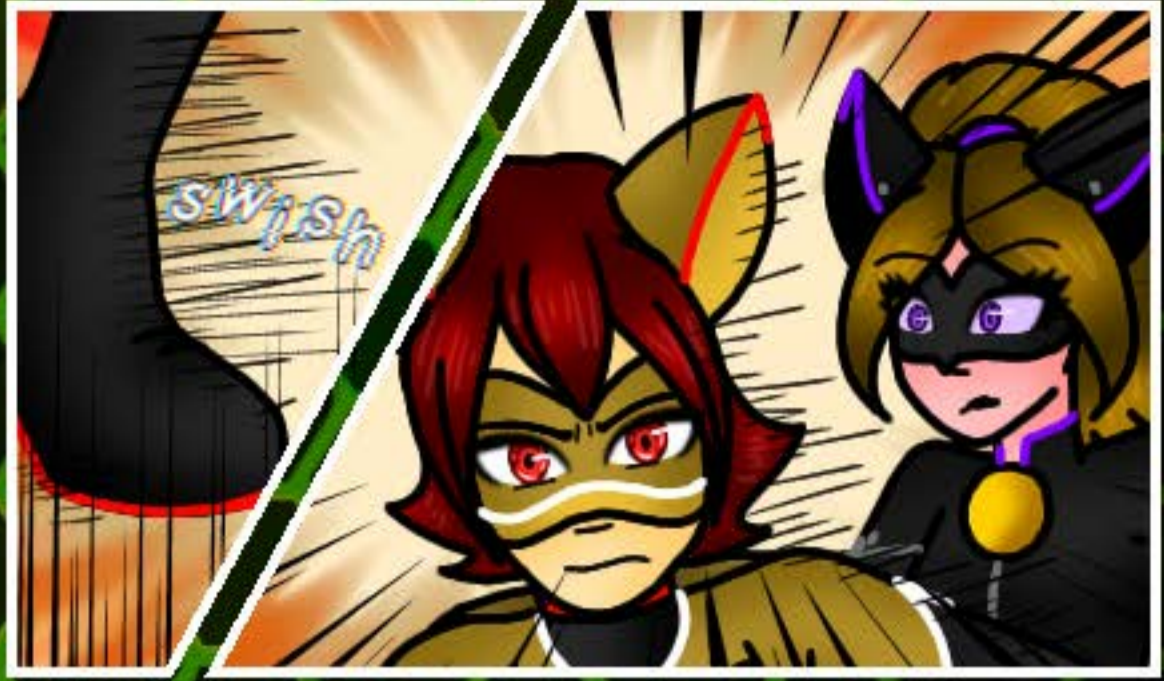

Oh well, not my fault!

he-he

What's your power? Imitation right?!

Then use it, quick! Don't just stand there!

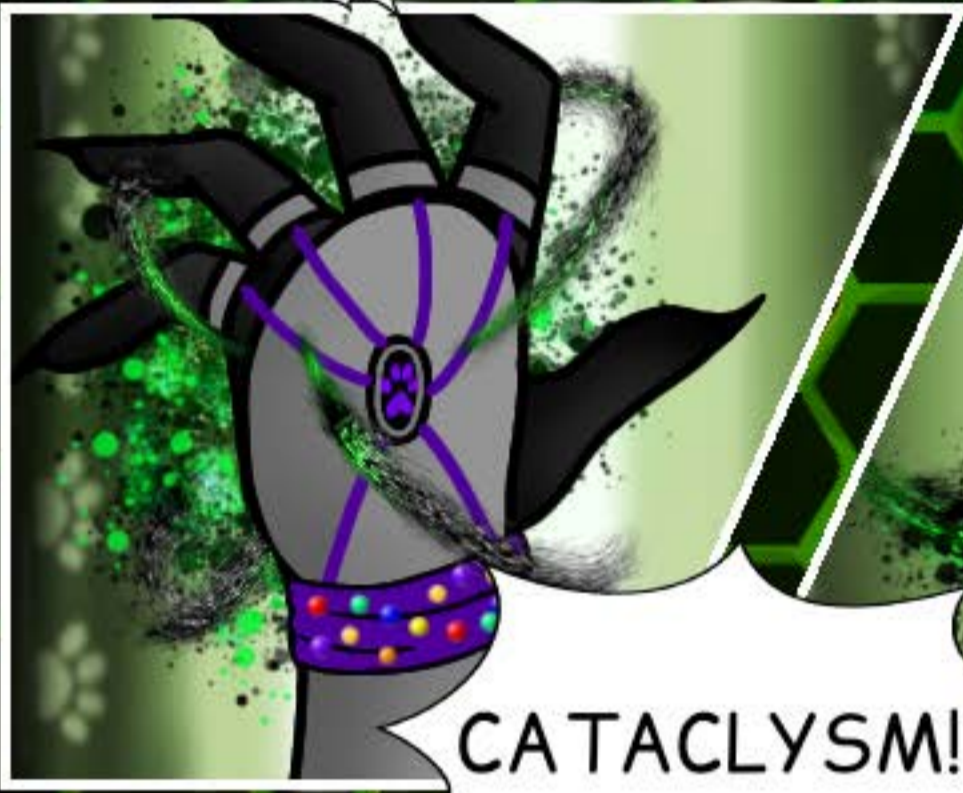

Well.. yes-?

Okay then..

Wait...

Woww..

What's the abhelized object you said?

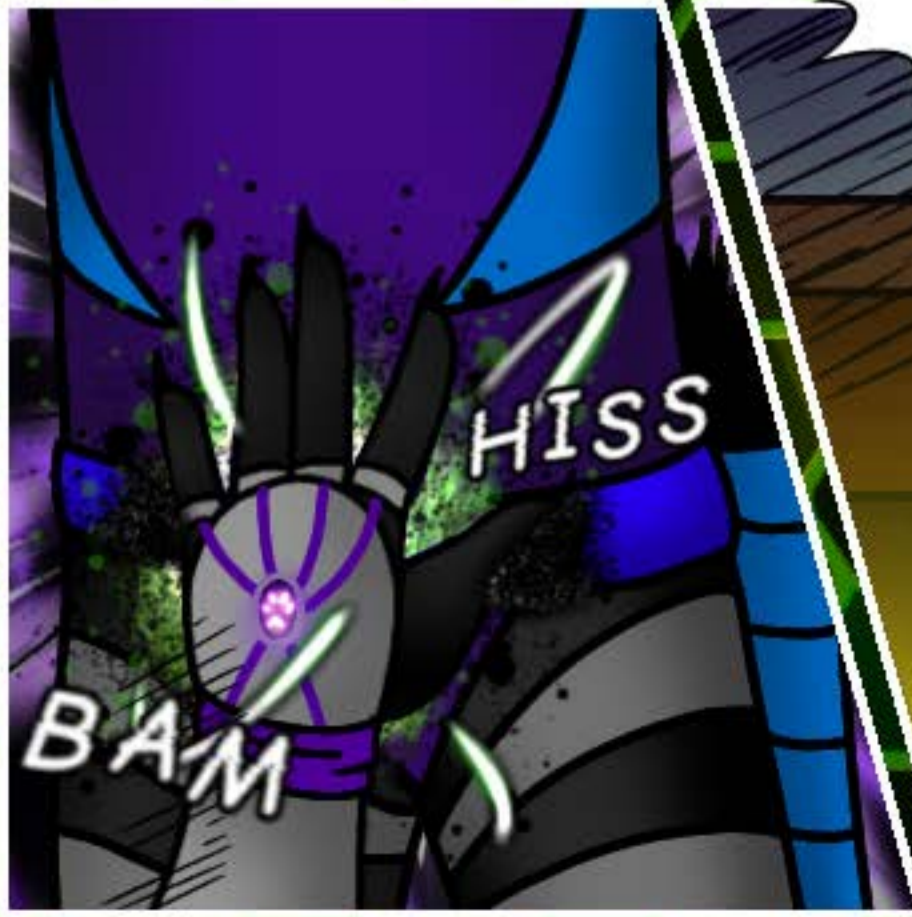

Get the belt!
FAST!

My-my-my!
I am so scared!

BEGONE!!

What happened?

You were abhelized! But don't worry, you are safe now!

Thank you!

Woww.. That was-stunning

wag

wag

Now I have to cure that venny... Bye little venny, you are free now!

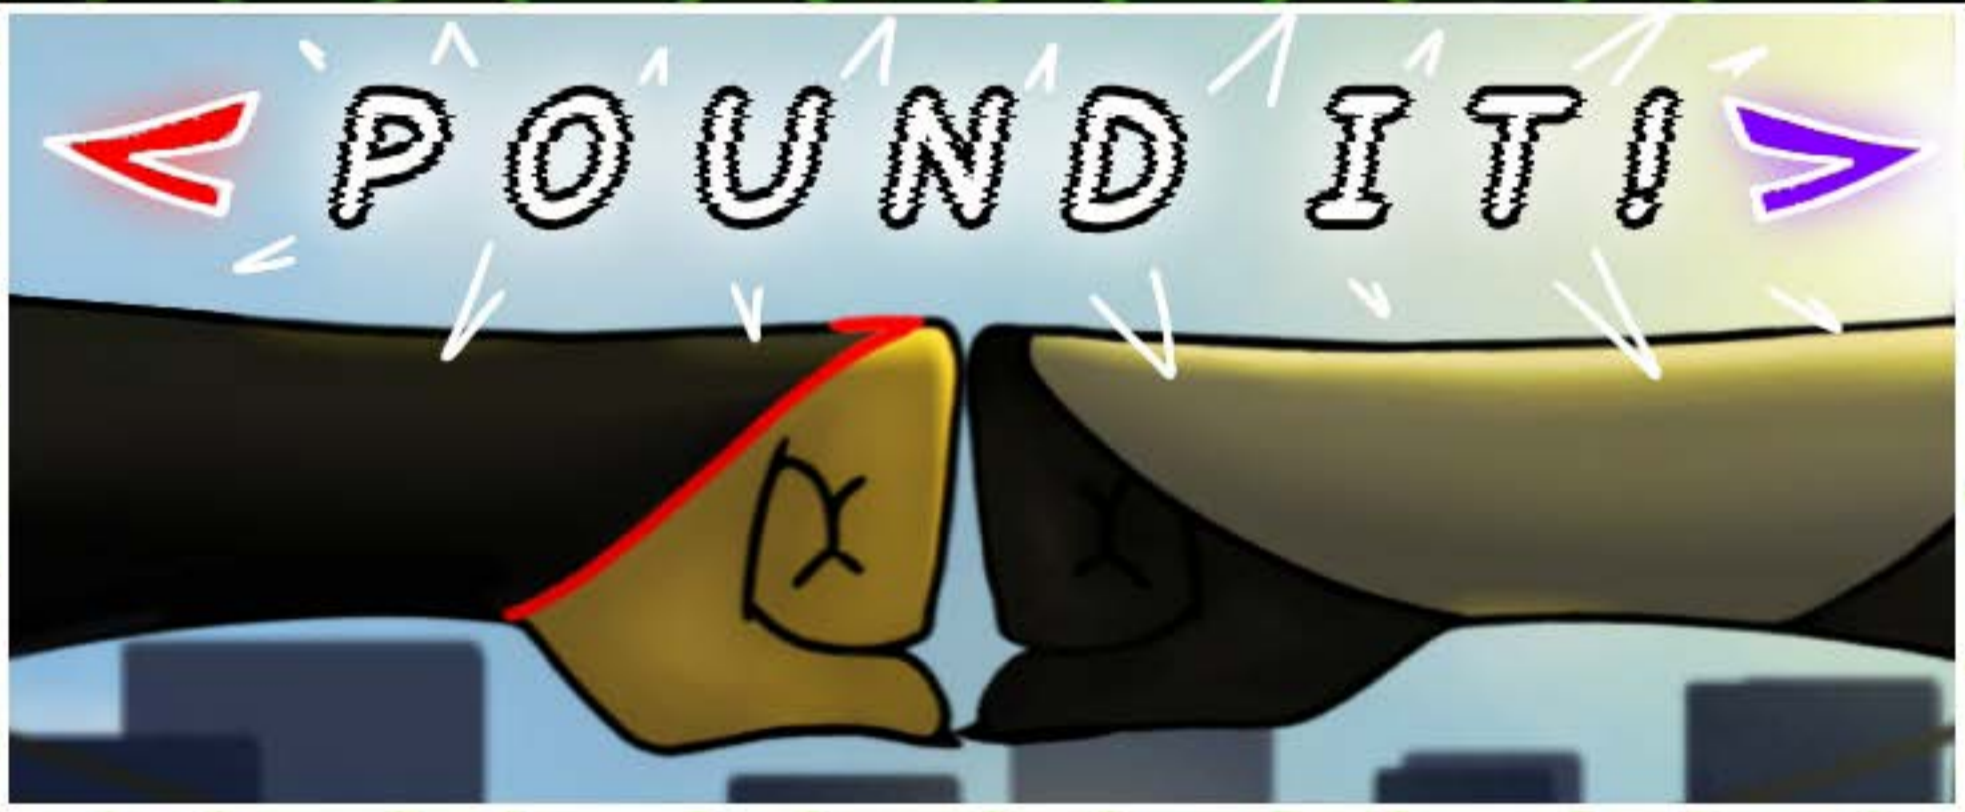

MAGIC RESTORATION!

Wouldn't it be the same if you used Ladybug's yo-yo for that restoration?

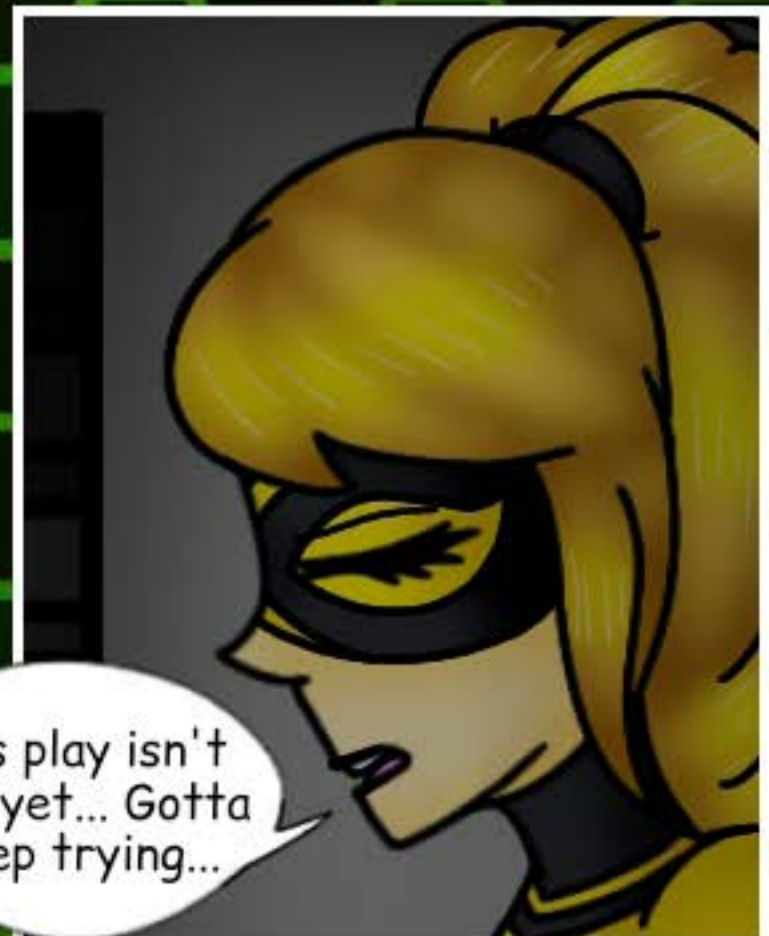

Well, it can cure only akumas and amoks but not vennis

You were- I mean! It was amazing, wasn't it! And you did it cool!

But you did so much too! I hope we meet again soon! Bye-bye!

This play isn't over yet... Gotta keep trying...
