The image features a central white card with a torn paper border, pinned to a background of aged, handwritten paper. The card is held in place by a gold circular fastener at the top center. The background paper is decorated with various elements: a piece of burlap fabric with some printed text (including 'up one', 'breast', 'shook', 'howlf', 'and', 'ld el', '32W', 'WL', 'f h', 'w') is layered behind the card; several dried, pressed flowers in shades of orange and yellow are scattered around the bottom and left edges; and a piece of light green textured paper is visible on the left side. The overall aesthetic is warm, rustic, and nostalgic.
