

Explore Hong Kong In One Day

Want to see the world but you are short of cash? Who said that is impossible? This article will show you the best ways of travelling Hong Kong in one day that will save your money.

It is a well-known fact that Hong Kong is a huge city with lots of beautiful spots and staggering number of entertaining places. But do not worry, here we will share with you the suggestive program which includes all the best sights that you must see when travelling to Hong Kong. This one day can fill you with sheer joy for years!

Morning : ICC Tower and Elements Mall

In the morning you can go to the ICC Tower and Elements Mall. These buildings are placed on the Kowloon Station and it is really easy to get there by MTR, that is why we suggest you these attractions as a first point of the route. The tower is famous for its incredibly beautiful view from the top and extremely nice exterior. Experienced travellers and citizens say that everybody should get this feeling when you stand on the top of one of the most tallest tower. They talk about Sky100, where you can see the observation floor with a 360 degree view, which is on the 100th floor. You also can find luxury shops and restaurants inside the Elements Mall and have rest before you get to the next place of your trip.

Midday: Victoria's Harbour

Right to the next point, you can take a taxi and get to the Victoria's Harbour that is considered as a necessary place for every tourist visiting Hong Kong. It gives you a small tour on the water where you can observe all the stunning spots in the city. There you can have an exciting boat ride within great skylines and see all the beauty of this huge town. Thing that you will like the most is the price- it costs only 25 US cents! People say that the view on the Victoria Peak is the most memorable one, so it would be a good idea to walk around the Peak after this fascinating cruise.

Afternoon : Victoria Peak

The most important point is Victoria Peak, the highest point in Hong Kong. As they say, if you want to visit a lot of places in this city, you should start from Peak.

There is a large observation deck at the peak tower, called Sky Terrace 148, where you can either have lunch or buy some souvenirs. Also you can see spectacular views from the observation deck of the Road Lugard, Lions View Point Pavilion, as well as on the viewing terrace of the Peak Gallery. For expanded prospects take a walk along the Peak Circle Walk. This is your opportunity to capture breathtaking moments so do not omit the Peak and make your trip really wonderful. People admit that the most exciting part of the tour around the Peak is an old tram, going by which you will pass skyscrapers and see it from unexpectedly amazing sides.

Evening : The Symphony Of Lights

Every evening you can see how 47 great buildings participate in the lights show and send light rays into the sky, making Hong Kong literally the most colourful city. The best places to observe the performing - Avenue of Stars on the waterfront of Tsim Sha Tsui promenade near the water, the Golden Bauhinia Square in Wan Chai and tourist ferries that ply the Victoria harbor. Such final part of your trip will make it completely unforgettable.

So what are you waiting for? Do not put off the trip and pack your things now, there are so many things in the world that you have never seen with your own eyes!
