PEGUOT-LR01

Ukrainian cycling brand Titan, which was founded in 2012 in the city of Kharkiv. Despite their relatively young age, Titan bicycles have earned the trust of consumers due to their durability, high-quality equipment and colorful design. The main motto of the company is to make high-quality bikes affordable.

Mountain bikes are used primarily for off-road riding (although they do not exclude the opposite), and as a result, they have a special design that differs from road, track and road bikes
