

And again a triumph. February 13, 2017 in Los Angeles was the 59th ceremony of awarding the most prestigious music award Grammy, which for the first time in the history of the ceremony, statuettes in three main categories: the album of the year, the song of the year and the recording of the year, awarded the incomparable British ADELE.

Being a diva is her niche. The world adores her not only for the luxurious contralto, soul songs, but also for her childish spontaneity, the ability to be sincere and not to be ashamed of emotions, the ability to cry and laugh, above all - above herself. ADELE is recognized not only as the leader in the number of creative awards received, this year it also became the richest performer of Great Britain. Only over the past year, the fees of ADELE brought her £ 35 million. But the fabulous money did not spoil ADELE, she remained herself - a nice "pyshechka" and bustling mother with a dimple on her chin, in simple jeans, conversations, all in the tracks of children's grubby little boy's little hands.

She started her star career Adel Laurie Blue Adkins at age four, when singing became her hobby. A quarter of a century later, the singer became the first artist since the famous Beatles of the Liverpool four, which released an album and a hit that hit the top 5 records and top 5 singles, not only in England, but also in America.

It is very interesting where the successful singer returns to after heavy filming, intense performances and tours. The fact remains that, having fabulous financial capital, the best investment is in real estate. And ADELE that confirmation. In her possession is not one mansion. The singer's family nest is in Beverly Hills, next door to Hollywood celebrities. The total area of the mansion is 613 m², consists of four luxurious spacious bedrooms, six bathrooms, a swimming pool, a huge Jacuzzi and a SPA zone. At home ADELE, as well as on the stage - everything is simple, light, practical and unpretentious. The house of a star worth $ 9.5 million does not shine with the royal luxury and bohemian chic that she can afford. It is comfortable and cozy, a designer interior in the style of classic minimalism and loft.

Did not regret the soul-star ADELE and 7 million pounds on 25 acres with a small castle in the British county of Sussex. There is a tennis court, a helipad area, two huge swimming pools, ten bedrooms and two spacious living rooms. Another 5 million dollars the singer counted for a small, stylish beach villa in Malibu. But the rating square meters, which owns ADELE, heads a small two-story children's home for a beloved son, worth 15 thousand pounds.

ADELE is unique. If you pay attention to the names of her albums, in each of them there are numbers. Why? It's simple: your texts ADELE, as before, writes to an ordinary notebook with a Sharpie pen, and first of all it writes the number on the first page. This number is her age at this moment. She is not yet thirty, but she is able even to create an intimate atmosphere of the chamber hall even in the grandiose London stadium of Wembley. She is called the future of music. She is heard and listened to, because she does not speak from the stage with everyone, but with everyone, one on one. She is rich and famous, but life "in a big way" is not her style. She is already a mother, but in her eyes lives the same little four-year-old modest little girl who likes to sing.
