Communication skills

- Through my singing club, I could improve my communication skills in special camp for singers, we had to work in team and I always was a captain of mine. In addition I was a part of chor, so I figured out how to build a strong friendship in a group. My classmates always knew that I am super extroverted and they can wait a help from me, so I was an energetic friendly person. Because of work I easily get along with people and find a way to make a comfortable conversation

Organisational / managerial skills

I always took part in school life and helped to organize a lot of events or competitions for kids. Also I was included in school parliament, so other students and me were responsible for activities and holidays in school. Nowadays I try to be such active in university life, so I helped to organize singing contest "Alma Mater". My dear friends and I organized volunteering project together in Dnipro for animals and we plan to reestablish it in spring.

Job-related skills

- Through the English tutor career, I can say that I can easily adapt to a situation and a person. I tend to keep calm in stressful situations and try to find best solution. Through my volunteering, I can say I am able to find key to others hearts, because we were able through the talking find best families for dogs and cats.
