

Ukraine.. again..

This non-stop horror movie,

Which all the world is watching every day!

For some of us it's not that real, truly.

But there are those who cannot get away.

Someone's observing reality show.

Through the internet and in real-time...

But all the characters are real here,

You know?

Although scenario we did not write.

And yes, we have a lot of heroes,

From bravest men to very little ones,

Protecting their kin not that "from pillows"

But straight in battles with the faith and guns.

One kid, you know, collected bunch of money

(Not that he worked but just singing on the street)

To buy a tank for our forces armed.

It was so brave and yet it was so sweet.

You see? We have a strongest armor ever

It's our love and fire in our hearts.

Ukraine is free, and so will be forever.

It is united and there are no parts!

Don't hurry up, new episode is coming.

But we're so badly needed in your help.

We'll win exactly and it will be stunning.

We don't give up and you should do the same!

Please, don't forget and don't be tired

With this unfair war, with people's grief.

We're here to protect and to inspire

Whole world with our courage and belief.

And each of you is always welcome

In our sunny beautiful Ukraine.

But first we all must crush the devil,

So it will never ever come again.
