

Christmas in Ukraine

From its origins to today

Kutya - boiled wheat or barley with honey boiled in water. Traditional ritual dish of the New Year's Christmas cycle.

Svyatvechir

War won't stop our hope even on holidays

Why are holidays still necessary?

- Traditions and holidays provide a stability, which is important during the chaos of war;
- Christmas holidays raise people's morale;
- It is especially important for children, because holidays bring joy and hope.

Let us enjoy the Christmas
