

San Salvador, El Salvador, April/23/2019

To whom it may concern,

Hereby it shall be stated that Viktoriiia Vysotskaia with number of passport 75 2650179, born in Russia; will be realising a volunteership with AIESEC in El Salvador. This volunteership seeks to have a positive societal impact within the country and to develop youth leadership.

The project will be realised in San Salvador between the months of January 2020 and January 2021 During this period, the volunteer will be contributing to a professional project supported by AIESEC. These activities in no form imply an employment relationship or the realization of any other laboral activities within the territory.

The volunteer enters the country on his own account. We recommend the volunteer upon arrival in El Salvador to present himself/herself at the immigration unit, presenting his passport as well as this letter so that he or she can be granted the permission to enter the country as a temporary visitor for 90 days.

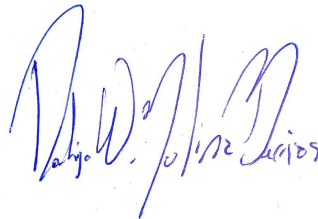

After arrival, AIESEC will provide assistance to the volunteer in order for him or her to obtain a further temporary visa for volunteers, exclusively for the time of his volunteership.

Viktoriiia Vysotskaia will be accommodated at the following address: Residencial Las Nubes, Senda acat Polígono U2 Casa 3 Antiguo Cuscatlán, Antiguo Cuscatlán, La Libertad.

For a better adaptation and success of the volunteership, the volunteer will receive workshops about intercultural communication, Salvadoran culture and leadership development, a fundamental pillar which AIESEC seeks to develop in youth.

For any further questions, please feel free to contact Rodrigo Molina at +503 6182-9187; email: rodrigo.molina2@aiesec.net

Sincerely,

Rodrigo Wilfredo Molina Berrios
National Director Global Talent
AIESEC in El Salvador